

If you hear him say he's going to get her drunk so that she can't say "no," what do you do?

- Walk away.
- Get help.
- Say something.

Stand up. Don't stand by.

Rape Victim Advocacy Program
Advocacy . Support . Information
Serving our campus and community
319.335.6000 (24-hr)

Be in the know:

Myth: It's okay to have sex with someone who is intoxicated.

Fact: Consent cannot be given if someone is intoxicated.

Myth: Silence means "yes."

Fact: Consent must be freely given.

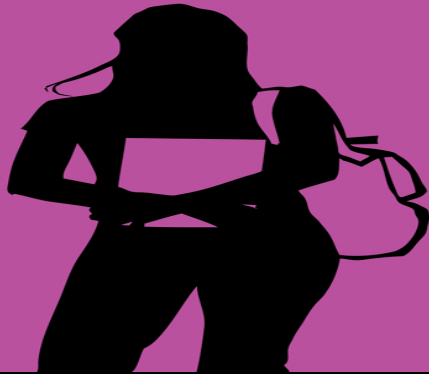

Myth: If you're assaulted and had been drinking underage, UI officials will pursue disciplinary violations against you.

Fact: You can make a good faith report of sexual misconduct and the Vice President for Student Services and Dean of Students will not pursue disciplinary violations against you (or a witness) for improper use of alcohol or drugs (e.g., underage drinking).

Stand up. Don't stand by.

Rape Victim Advocacy Program
319.335.6000 (24-hr)

This program is brought to you, in part, by a Coca-Cola grant.

If you see a person that's too drunk to walk straight and notice someone is trying to take them home, what do you do?

- Walk away.
- Check-in; make sure they are okay with it.
- Offer to make arrangements for getting home.

Stand up. Don't stand by.

Rape Victim Advocacy Program
Advocacy . Support . Information
Serving our campus and community
319.335.6000 (24-hr)

Be in the know:

Myth: It's okay to have sex with someone who is intoxicated.

Fact: Consent cannot be given if someone is intoxicated.

Myth: Silence means "yes."

Fact: Consent must be freely given.

Myth: If you're assaulted and had been drinking underage, UI officials will pursue disciplinary violations against you.

Fact: You can make a good faith report of sexual misconduct and the Vice President for Student Services and Dean of Students will not pursue disciplinary violations against you (or a witness) for improper use of alcohol or drugs (e.g., underage drinking).

Stand up. Don't stand by.

Rape Victim Advocacy Program
319.335.6000 (24-hr)

This program is brought to you, in part, by a Coca-Cola grant.